

THE KILLING AT KIRBYVILLE.

At about four o'clock last Thursday at Kirbyville, one of those diabolical crimes which every community dreads, occurred, in which one man lost his life and another lies seriously wounded. The circumstances as near as we can learn which led up to the killing are about as follows: J. M. Parnell was doing business as a merchant at Kirbyville. Among his customers was the deceased, Cotterell, who had run behind with his bills or had failed to meet them and hard feelings had been engendered. This had continued for some time. Cotterell had used very bad language about Parnell frequently, and on the occasion of the killing had called Parnell the vilest of names, and had driven from the residence of his son Marion in South Kirbyville with the avowed intention of abusing Parnell. He drove up in front of the store and began to abuse Parnell, after some words between them Parnell went into the store, got his revolver and started to go out to where Cotterell was but was prevented from going out by his son Sam Parnell. After he was stopped by his son Sam, he went back into the store, and the son went out and had some words with Cotterell. While Sam and Cotterell were quarrelling, J. M. Parnell walked out of the store and tried to force Cotterell to remain in the wagon. In the meantime, however, Marion Cotterell had come on the scene and he and Sam Parnell got into a fight; as it progressed, the old man Cotterell began to get out of his wagon and Parnell tried to force him to remain in the wagon, but he climbed out with many expressions hostile to Parnell. Parnell then drew his revolver down on Cotterell and shot twice striking him once about the collar bone the other shot struck a little in front and above the left ear ranging forward and coming out at the inner corner of the left eye. He then turned the weapon and shot Marion Cotterell, striking him near the small of the back and ranging forward. This wound is a very painful but not necessarily dangerous one. Parnell left Kirbyville without any one attempting to hinder him. He remained away until Sunday when he returned and surrendered to the authorities. On Friday a jury was impaneled by E. J. Maranda. After taking the testimony of number of eye witnesses the jury returned a verdict finding that Cotterell came to his death by gun shot wound at the hands of J. M. Parnell.

Kirbyville, Mo. November 22, 1897

Editor Taney County Republican.

DEAR SIR—A large majority of the subscribers to your paper will expect as near a correct and truthful report in your next issue of the trouble in Kirbyville on the 18th day of Nov. 1897 resulting in the death of Wesley Cotterell, as can be gathered from the best sources, and as J. M. Parnell, who did the shooting has surrendered himself to the officers of the law, and will have a preliminary hearing at Kirbyville on Tuesday Nov. 23, if the Prosecuting Atty. can be present, I would suggest that you attend the preliminary, or have some person to do so to hear the evidence, and you can also have the perusal of the evidence before the coroners jury, from which you can draw correct conclusions, and a correct statement of facts. You are at liberty to publish this note, and request that you do so.

Yours for the peace and quietude of Taney county.

Very Respectfully,

Geo. Meranda, Justice of the Peace, and acting Coroner in the case.

John F. Viles of Galena, son of the well-known Prosecuting Attorney for Stone county, spent a couple of days of last week with the Republican man. Although born within a stones throw of the future great, John had never visited Forsyth before. He was wonderfully pleased with our evidence of thrift and general prosperity. He liked Forsyth ever so much. Come again John, and bring your knitting.

We notice that the Taney County Star is recommending to Popocatecalt faithful the Renegade Republicans and other odds and ends of politics the propriety of holding a mass meeting of the unfaithful at Taneyville some time in January, for the purpose of devising ways and means for wresting the county government from the hands of the elect. That will be a good time and a good place to hatch mischief. But it won't count. Let the faithful put on the war paint now, and dig up the scolding knife and Thomsen hatchet and get ready for the fray.

He had been troubled with the piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him.—F. A little child of J. R. Hays, living near Colquitt, Ga., overturned a pot of boiling water, scalding itself severely that the skin came off its breast and limbs. The distressed parents sent to Mr. Bush, merchant of Colquitt, for remedy, and he promptly forwarded Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The child was suffering intensely, but was relieved by a single application of the Pain Balm. Another application or two made it sound, and well. For sale by F. V. SURVEYOR'S FEES.

of the Legislature, approved March 21, 1897, providing that County Surveyors be allowed for each survey of one and a quarter miles or less, 20 cents for each field, 10 cents for copy of plat and certificate; 20 cents for recording plat and certificate. These items total up $50.00, the lowest charge made for any survey, and in addition to this amount there is a charge of 50 cents for each additional mile and $1.00 for each corner established. The Statute provides that County Surveyors perpetuate their surveys by establishing well defined corners, and it is not left merely to the opinion of the party having the survey made as to the number of corners necessary to perpetuate the work—that must be determined by the surveyor himself, charge of 50 cents for every mile of travel, each way, is allowed.

Random Surveys are more guess work, neither accurate nor safe, and dear at any price. All communications relative to surveys, etc., promptly answered.

From the Lone Star State comes the following letter, written by W. F. Gause, editor of the Mt. Vernon, (Tex) Herald: I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for the past year, and I find it the best remedy for colic and diarrhoea that I have ever tried. Its effects are instantaneous and satisfactory, and I cheerfully recommend it, especially for cramp colic and diarrhoea. Indeed, we shall try and keep a bottle of it on our medicine shelf as long as we keep house. For sale by Arter Kisse, Kisse Mills and F. V. Baldwin, Forsyth.

It often happens that the doctor is out of town when most needed. The two year old daughter of J. Y. Sceenack, of Cadde, Ind. Ther., was threatened with croup. He writes: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor at once, but as he was out of town, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved the child immediately." A bottle of that remedy in the house will often save the expense of a doctor's bill, besides the anxiety always occasioned by serious sickness. When it is given as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. Thousands of mothers always keep it in their houses. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. V. Baldwin, Forsyth and Arter Kisse, Kisse Mills.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as much it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way, is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

CHIEF CAUSE.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and it is not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, act your urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar you may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail. Mention The Taney County Republican and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.
